1. DHG PHARMA's shareholders shall be granted with share certificates corresponding to the number of shares and class of shares owned.

2. Shares are certificates issued by the company, book entries or electronic data certifying ownership of one or a number of shares of DHG PHARMA. Shares must contain all contents as stipulated in Clause 1, Article 120 of the Law on Enterprises.

3. Within a period of thirty (30) days from the date of submission of a complete application file for the transfer of shares ownership in accordance with DHG PHARMA's provisions or within a (02) two-month period or may be longer under the terms of shares issuance from the full payment date of share purchase as stipulated in DHG PHARMA's share issuance plan, shareholders will be granted with share certificates. Shareholders do not have to pay DHG PHARMA for the cost of printing share certificates.

4. In case only a number of shares in a share certificate shall be transferred, the old share certificate will be rescinded and a new share certificate recording the remaining shares will be granted free of charge.

5. If a share certificate is lost, destroyed or damaged, the owner of such share certificate may request a new share certificate under a condition that he/she must provide evidence of ownership and pay all relevant expenses to DHG PHARMA.

6. Owners of share certificates shall be solely responsible for preserving their share certificates and DHG PHARMA will not be responsible in any case where these certificates are stolen or used for fraudulent purposes.

7. Pursuant to the provisions of the Law on Enterprises and the Law on Securities and the stock market, DHG PHARMA may issue shares which shall not take the form of certificates, and allow the shares (regardless of whether being issued in this form or not) to be transferred and a document on such transfer shall not necessarily be required; or at certain times, the Board of Directors may issue other regulations replacing respective regulations in this Charter regarding share certificates and share transfer.

Article 11. Other securities certificates

1. DHG PHARMA may issue bonds, convertible bonds and other bonds in accordance with the law. The Board of Directors has the rights to decide on the types of shares (except bonds converted to shares to be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders), the total value of bonds and the time of issuance, but must report to the General Meeting of Shareholders at the nearest meeting. The report must be enclosed with documents and dossiers explaining the Board of Directors' decision on the issuance of bonds.

2. DHG PHARMA may issue covered bonds and debentures upon approval by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The bonds may be converted into ordinary shares and subscription rights allow their holders to purchase shares in accordance with the laws and this Charter.

3. Bond certificate or other securities certificates of DHG PHARMA (excluding sale offer letters, temporary certificates, and similar documents) shall be issued with the seal and signature of the legal representative of DHG PHARMA unless otherwise provided by the terms and conditions of issue.

Article 12. Transfer of shares

2. The shares that were not fully paid are not transferable and are not entitled to related benefits such as the right to receive dividends, the right to receive issued shares to increase share capital from owners' capital, the right to buy new shares for sale.

Article 13. Reclamation of shares

1. If a shareholder fails to pay in full and on time the amount payable for the subscription of shares, the Board of Directors shall notify and send a notice to the shareholder to request for payment of such amount, together with any accrued interest which may be accumulated on the amount, and costs arising from any failure to pay such amount to DHG PHARMA in accordance with the provisions.

2. The above-mentioned notice must specify a new time-limit for payment (at least seven (07) days from the date on which the notice is sent), place, method of payment, and clearly state that in the event that payment is not made as required, the shares which have not yet been fully paid for will be reclaimed.

3. If the requirements stipulated in the above-mentioned notices are not fulfilled, before all amounts payable, interest and related costs are fully paid, the Board of Directors may reclaim such shares (including all announced dividends to be paid on the reclaimed shares which have not been paid out at the time of reclamation). The Board of Directors may accept the submission of shares to be reclaimed in accordance with Clauses 4, 5 and 6 of this Article and in other cases stipulated in this Charter.

4. The reclaimed shares shall become assets and are considered as the shares offered for sale of DHG PHARMA as stipulated in Clause 3, Article 111 of the Law on Enterprises. The Board of Directors may directly execute or authorize the sale, redistribution or settlement for persons whose own shares reclaimed or other subjects under the conditions and ways which the Board of Directors deems appropriate.

5. The shareholder who holds the reclaimed shares will have to relinquish his or her shareholder status in respect of those shares, but still have to pay all related amounts plus interest at the time of reclamation in accordance with the decision of the Board of Directors, from the date of reclamation to the date of payment. The Board of Directors reserves the right to enforce full payment of shares at the time of reclamation or may waive part or all of such amounts.

6. A reclamation notice shall be sent to the shareholders holding reclaimed shares prior to the time of reclamation. The reclamation shall be still valid even in case of error or negligence of sending notice.
